

Welcome to the CrAft urban movement!

- A community in which changing business-as-usual becomes easier as many other cities are performing a similar journey
- Engagement with key stakeholders such as citizens and communities, property owners and tenants, cultural, artistic and creative sectors, universities and schools of arts and design
- At least 160 NEB-proof collaborative local governance models, tools, examples and stories
- A NEB-inspired impact model
- Showcasing at least 80 local emblematic projects
- More than 30 European universities and schools of arts and design
- 6 policy briefs to guide European and national decision making
- Europe-wide storytelling campaigns

CrAft aligns various groups of stakeholders that would normally not work together, and covers different geographic regions of Europe, through its partners and stakeholders.

- 1 Creating Actionable Futures, in short: CrAft, is a Horizon Europe funded project bringing together cities and their citizens, policymakers, arts and academia to jointly shape the transition to climate neutrality.
- 2 CrAft places the transition to climate neutrality at the heart of urban stakeholders.
- 3 CrAft draws inspiration from the European Cities Mission and the New European Bauhaus (NEB) principles.
- 4 CrAft develops, connects and showcases examples of local collaboration models to be replicated and scaled.

3 Sandbox cities co-create and test collaborative governance models for urban transformation

60 Reference Cities working on and scaling up inclusive, beautiful, sustainable and climate neutral city transitions

Cooperation with the NEB Lighthouses and other NEB and Cities Mission Communities

Supporting the Cities Mission, the NetZeroCities Platform and the New European Bauhaus

The CrAft Cities will engage in:

Testing best practises in New European Bauhaus-inspired collaborative local governance models.

Peer-to-peer learning through a mixture of online fora, physical meetings, site visits, access to learning materials and facilitation.

Locally tailored support to enable organisational development.

Access to the vast amount of learning material already developed by existing platforms, including masterclasses and matchmaking sessions.

Participate in a next-generation think/do tank with students and youth communities.

Europe wide storytelling campaigns on your CrAft trajectories.

CrAft is a networked project launched May 2022 with eight lead partners all across Europe:

The CrAft urban movement is growing.

More and more European cities are joining. Will you help build your futures?

If you want to learn more, contact us.

@CrAft_NEb

CrAft_NEb

annemie.wyckmans@ntnu.no

<https://craft-cities.eu/>

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon Europe Research and Innovation programme under Grant Agreement No. 101056946. This page reflects only the authors' views. The European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information it contains.